Primary duties were the prosecution of criminal offenses on all levels and the representation of the State of Wyoming at trial on all matters from traffic court to capital litigation.

Office of the United States Attorney, District of Wyoming

Special Prosecutor

1999-2003

Concurrent with my duties with the Natrona County District Attorney's Office, I worked with federal authorities on the HIDTA (High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area) program. Duties included prosecution of larger scale drug trafficking in Wyoming and included trials and appeal in the Federal courts.

State of Wyoming, Seventh Judicial District Attorney's Office

District Attorney

December 23, 2003, to January 7, 2019

Agency head of a prosecutor's office which included me and nine other attorneys. I was also responsible for the support staff and victims' services personnel in the office. Oversaw the operation of juvenile programs including a juvenile diversion and probation program. Participated in numerous community groups and organizations involved in the criminal justice system. I carried an active caseload and also engaged in political activities as required by the office. Responsible for budgetary and personnel matters. I stood for election after replacing my predecessor in 2004 and won re-election in 2006, 2010 and 2014.

I served on several public boards connected to my elected position including the Community Alternatives Board, Governor's Counsel on Impaired Driving and the Governor's Council on Drug Endangered Children, the Coroners Standards Board and, at least initially, on the Board of the Child Advocacy Project

In 2019 I left the District Attorneys' Office and from January, 2019 to November of 2019 I served as a special prosecutor in two different Wyoming Counties

State of Wyoming, Seventh Judicial District Attorney's Office

Assistant District Attorney

November 2019 to April 2022

I returned to primary duties of state and federal narcotics prosecution including reappointment as a Special Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Wyoming. My primary duties including preparation and, if necessary, trial of these cases.

I retired at that time and presently am engaged in one case as a special prosecutor on a homicide case in Cheyenne, Wyoming.
